Convertible Promissory Note

On September 10, 2026, CID HoldCo, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), issued an unsecured convertible promissory note (the “H Capital Note”) to H Capital Ventures Management Consultancies Co. LLC., a UAE entity (Licence No. 1162929) (the “Holder”). The H Capital Note was issued in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Binding Summary of Principal Terms, dated as of September 14, 2026, between the Company, BladeRanger (as defined below) and Envoy (as defined below) (the “Term Sheet”).

The H Capital Note has an original principal amount of Five Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($550,000.00). The Holder delivered $500,000.00 in cash upon issuance of the H Capital Note, reflecting a 10% original issue discount. The H Capital Note bears interest at a rate of 8% per annum on the outstanding principal amount; provided, that the interest for the first six months on the principal shall accrue immediately and be guaranteed. The H Capital Note matures on the six (6) month anniversary of the issue date (the “Maturity Date”).

The H Capital Note is convertible, at the option of the Holder, into shares of Common Stock of the Company, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Common Stock”), at any time and from time to time. The conversion price (the “Conversion Price”) is equal to the lower of (a) $1.50 per share of Common Stock and (b) 90% of the ten (10) Trading Day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock (the “VWAP”) ending on the Trading Day immediately prior to the applicable conversion date; provided, however, that in no event shall the Conversion Price be less than $0.50 per share of Common Stock (the “Floor Price”).

The H Capital Note is subject to a beneficial ownership limitation of 4.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (the “Ownership Limitation”), which the Holder may increase to 9.99% upon sixty-one (61) days’ prior written notice to the Company. In addition, the H Capital Note may not be converted into more than 9.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the issue date (the “Exchange Cap”), unless and until the Company obtains the approval of its stockholders as may be required by the applicable rules and regulations of the principal securities market on which the Common Stock is then listed.

The H Capital Note contains customary events of default, including, among others: failure to pay principal or interest when due, failure by the Company to timely deliver conversion shares, breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the H Capital Note or the Term Sheet, the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Company or the entry of judgments against the Company in excess of $50,000, delisting of the Common Stock from Nasdaq, and the Company's failure to comply with the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the Conversion Price shall be reduced to $0.01 per share.

The H Capital Note provides for liquidated damages of $500 per day in the event the Company fails to timely deliver conversion shares. The H Capital Note may be prepaid by the Company at any time, in whole or in part, without the consent of the Holder.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the H Capital Note, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Binding Summary of Principal Terms for the Acquisition of Envoy Technologies, Inc.

On September 14, 2026, the Company entered into a legally binding and enforceable Binding Summary of Principal Terms (the "Term Sheet") with BladeRanger Ltd. (TASE: BLRN) ("BladeRanger") and Envoy Technologies, Inc. ("Envoy"), pursuant to which the Company will acquire 100% of Envoy's outstanding capital stock (the "Acquisition"). BladeRanger holds 100% of Envoy's outstanding capital stock. Blink Charging Co. ("Blink") holds a $12.5 million convertible note in Envoy that will convert into 20% of Envoy's equity prior to closing.

Valuation and Consideration. Under the terms of the Term Sheet, at the closing of the Acquisition (the "Closing"), the Company will issue shares equal to an aggregate of 10,833,333 shares of Common Stock (the "Envoy-Side Shares"), representing approximately 67.3% of the post-closing fully diluted capitalization of the Company (based on 15,986,606 post-closing fully diluted shares). The consideration issued at Closing will consist of (i) 233,543 shares of Common Stock to BladeRanger (representing 9.99% of the Company's shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to Closing, and after taking into account the shares issuable upon conversion of the H Capital Note), and (ii) the balance of the consideration will be shares of a newly authorized Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series C Preferred"), of which 2,166,667 shares will be issued to Blink (representing 20% of the Envoy-Side Shares) and 8,433,123 shares will be issued to BladeRanger (representing the balance of the Envoy-Side Shares). The Series C Preferred will have a stated value of $6.00 per share and be non-voting (except with respect to protective provisions) and will be convertible on a one-for-one basis into shares of Common Stock automatically upon the receipt of stockholder approval, but may not be converted into more than 19.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the issue date, including the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the H Capital Note and the shares of Common Stock issued to BladeRanger at the Closing (the "Series C Blocker"). The Series C Preferred will have a liquidation preference equal to the greater of its stated value and its as-converted value, and will not be redeemable.

BladeRanger-Funded Obligations. To the extent BladeRanger incurs, pays or otherwise satisfies any fees, costs, expenses or other amounts from the date of the Term Sheet through the Closing, including any amounts incurred by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding of Envoy during such period and any indebtedness of the Company or Envoy paid or funded by BladeRanger, BladeRanger shall receive additional shares of Common Stock or Series C Preferred, as applicable, equal to the aggregate amount so incurred at price per share of $6.00; provided, however, that the aggregate amount so funded by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding or indebtedness of Envoy shall not exceed $500,000 and an aggregate of 400,000 shares of Series C Preferred shall not be issued in respect of amounts funded by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding or indebtedness of the Company. Any such additional shares shall not affect the Envoy-Side Shares to be issued at the Closing. The Company is solely responsible for all costs, fees, expenses and other liabilities incurred or accrued by it through the Closing in connection with the operation, maintenance and run-off of the Company and its business.

Closing and Conditions. The Closing of the Acquisition is targeted for October 6, 2026 (the “Outside Date”), and the definitive agreements are to be entered into on or before September 25, 2026. The Closing is subject to customary conditions, including, as conditions to the Company’s obligation to consummate the Acquisition, the accuracy in all material respects of BladeRanger’s and Envoy’s representations and warranties and compliance with their covenants, the absence of a material adverse effect, and the receipt of all required Israeli and Tel Aviv Stock Exchange approvals. Conditions to BladeRanger’s obligation to consummate the Acquisition include the accuracy in all material respects of the Company’s representations and warranties and compliance with its covenants, the filing of the Series C Certificate and issuance of the shares of Series C Preferred, and the execution of Voting and Support Agreements. Stockholder approval will be required under applicable Nasdaq rules, including Nasdaq Rules 5635(a), (b) and (d), in connection with the contemplated change of control and prior to the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon conversion of the Series C Preferred or the H Capital Note, or pursuant to any equity line of credit entered into in connection with the Closing, in each case to the extent such issuances exceed applicable Nasdaq limitations. Stockholder approval is not a condition to Closing and is targeted for January 2027.

Termination. The Term Sheet may be terminated upon mutual consent of the parties, the Closing not occurring by the Outside Date, exercise of the Company’s fiduciary out (subject to expense reimbursement to BladeRanger of up to $150,000), an uncured material breach by the other party, or if the Nasdaq continued listing condition has become incapable of being satisfied on or prior to the Outside Date.

Post-Closing Covenants. Following the Closing, BladeRanger will have the right to designate one (1) director to the Company’s Board of Directors. The Board will continue to consist of seven (7) directors, of which four (4) shall be independent directors. In addition, BladeRanger will have the right to designate one (1) member to the Company’s executive management team. Following the Closing, the Company will assume BladeRanger’s obligation to backstop certain Envoy vehicle leases guaranteed by Blink, representing approximately $700,000 of obligations, including by providing a letter of credit within thirty (30) days following the Closing. In addition, Envoy will extend its existing transition services arrangement with Blink for an additional six (6) months to support the completion of the Rule 3-05 audit.

BladeRanger’s shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Series C Preferred will be subject to a six (6) month lock-up, followed by leak-out provisions limiting sales to no more than 10% of daily trading volume or, if available, volume under Rule 144.

Blink’s shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series C Preferred will be subject to a twelve (12) month lock-up, subject to a carve-out for a registered pro rata distribution to Blink’s stockholders. The Company will be required to file a resale registration statement on Form S-1 within sixty (60) days following receipt of Envoy’s financial statements required by Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X. H Capital, BladeRanger and Blink will also have customary piggyback registration rights and up to two demand registration rights in any twelve-month period. From the Closing until the Series C Preferred is convertible in full into Common Stock following receipt of stockholder approval, the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of BladeRanger, issue or sell any shares of capital stock or other equity securities, or any options, warrants, convertible or exchangeable securities or other rights to acquire capital stock, or enter into any financing or other transaction that would result in dilution to BladeRanger’s ownership interest in the Company; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to issuances expressly contemplated by the Term Sheet or equity compensation pursuant to the Company’s existing equity incentive plans.

The Company and Envoy will be subject to a three (3) year non-compete in the U.S. residential, hospitality and campus shared electric vehicle mobility markets, as well as customary non-solicitation provisions.

Indemnification. Representations and warranties of BladeRanger and Envoy will survive for 18 months (with fundamental representations to survive for 6 years). Any claims for indemnification will be subject to a $100,000 deductible, a pre-Closing cap of $250,000 and a post-Closing cap of 25% of the Envoy-Side Shares value at $6.00 per share. Following the Closing, any indemnification obligations of BladeRanger that are subject to the general cap will be satisfied solely from shares of Series C Preferred or Common Stock held by BladeRanger, valued at $6.00 per share, and BladeRanger will have no cash liability with respect thereto.

The Term Sheet is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors with information regarding its terms. The Term Sheet is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, its subsidiaries or BladeRanger or Blink or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Term Sheet were made only for purposes of the Term Sheet as of the specific dates set forth therein, were solely for the benefit of the parties thereto, may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed upon by the parties for the purposes of allocating contractual risk among such parties instead of establishing these matters as facts and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to such contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Term Sheet, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Term Sheet, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

This summary of principal terms (this “Term Sheet”) summarizes the binding terms upon which CID HoldCo, Inc. (Nasdaq: DAIC) (“DAIC”) will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Envoy Technologies, Inc. (“Envoy”) from BladeRanger Ltd. (TASE: BLRN) (“BladeRanger”). Blink Charging Co. (“Blink”) is the holder of Envoy’s $12,500,000 convertible note. This Term Sheet is intended to be, and upon execution by DAIC, Envoy and BladeRanger (each, a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”), shall constitute, a legally binding and enforceable agreement between the Parties with respect to the matters set forth herein. The Parties intend to enter into the Definitive Agreements (as herein defined) to further document and effect the transactions contemplated hereby; however, the absence of executed Definitive Agreements shall not affect the binding nature of this Term Sheet, and in the event Definitive Agreements are not executed (but subject to any termination of this Term Sheet on the terms set forth herein), the terms of this Term Sheet shall govern the transactions contemplated herein.

2. TRANSACTION AND CONSIDERATION – TERMS OF STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Term	Provision
Transaction Description	Immediately prior to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement among DAIC, BladeRanger and Envoy (the “SPA”) (such closing, the “ Closing ”), the Envoy Convertible Note will be converted into shares representing 20% of Envoy’s outstanding common stock.
	At the Closing: (i) DAIC shall acquire 100% of the outstanding capital stock of Envoy from BladeRanger and Blink. (ii) DAIC will issue to (i) BladeRanger 233,543 shares of DAIC Common, representing the maximum number of shares of that may be issued without obtaining Stockholder Approval under applicable Nasdaq rules (after taking into account the shares of DAIC Common issuable upon conversion of the H Capital Convertible Note), and (ii) BladeRanger and Blink the balance of the Envoy-Side Shares in the form of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, which will automatically convert into DAIC Common upon receipt of Stockholder Approval.
Valuation	The Envoy-Side Shares (as below defined) will be valued at $65,000,000 and at a Reference Price of $6.00 per DAIC share. BDO previously valued Envoy at $60M in March of 2026. Blink’s note (not less than 20% for $12.5M) implies a post-money value of $62,500,000 on conversion. The Reference Price is not a valuation of DAIC common stock. All consideration will be recorded at fair value under U.S. GAAP.
Envoy-Side Shares	The “ Envoy-Side Shares ” mean a fixed 10,833,333 shares ($$65,000,000 \div \6.00) of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of DAIC (“ DAIC Common ”) (after conversion of all shares of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock as provided for herein) and will not be subject to adjustment for changes in DAIC’s outstanding number of shares or fluctuations in the market price of DAIC Common, representing 67.3% of the post-closing fully diluted capitalization of 15,986,606 shares of DAIC Common.

Existing-Holder Side Shares	The “Existing-Holder Side Shares” mean 2,337,767 shares outstanding plus the 2,815,506 shares of DAIC Common issued to LHT for a total of 5,268,067 shares of DAIC Common, or 32.7% of the post-closing fully diluted capitalization of 15,986,606 shares of DAIC Common. The shares of DAIC Common issuable upon conversion of the H Capital Convertible Note (as defined in Section 6 of this Term Sheet), the Yorkville SEPA shares, notes and warrants, and transfer-agent reserves are outside the formula and dilute both the Envoy-Side Shares and Existing-Holder Side Shares pro rata.
Post-Closing Allocation of DAIC Common	Blink: 20% of the Envoy-Side Shares = 2,166,667. BladeRanger: balance = 8,433,123. (See Appendix A hereto for an illustration of the anticipated post-Closing capitalization of DAIC.)
Consideration (Envoy-Side Shares)	The Envoy-Side Shares will be newly authorized shares of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock of DAIC, in each case, issued and delivered in full at the Closing. Until receipt of stockholder approval under Nasdaq Rule 5635, the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock will be convertible into no more than 19.99% of outstanding DAIC Common (including the shares of DAIC Common issued to BladeRanger at the Closing and the shares of DAIC Common issuable upon conversion of the H Capital Convertible Note (the “Series C Blocker”)) as of the date of issuance (if at all).
Series C Convertible Preferred Stock terms	10,833,333 shares to be designated with a stated value $6.00. The Series C Convertible Preferred Stock will be non-voting (other than in respect of certain protective provisions whereby the holders of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to consent with respect to adverse amendments and the authorization or issuance of senior stock). Series C Convertible Preferred Stock will be convertible on a one-for-one basis into DAIC Common automatically on the first trading day after Stockholder Approval, subject to the Series C Blocker. The Series C Convertible Preferred Stock liquidation preference will be at the greater of stated value and as-converted value and will not be subject to redemption by the holders thereof. DAIC shall use its reasonable best efforts to file the preliminary proxy statement to obtain Stockholder Approval as promptly as practicable following the Closing, and in any event no later than 30 days following receipt of Envoy’s audited financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2025 and unaudited reviewed interim financial statements for 2026 to be included in the proxy statement. If Stockholder Approval is not obtained at the initial stockholder meeting, DAIC shall resubmit the proposal for Stockholder Approval at each subsequent meeting of stockholders and, in any event, no less frequently than once every three months, until Stockholder Approval is obtained.

3. BLINK CONVERSION AND RELATED MATTERS

Term	Provision
Lock-up and registration	12-month lock-up with a carve-out for a registered pro rata distribution to Blink's stockholders; DAIC files a resale registration statement on Form S-1 within 60 days after the Rule 3-05 financials. H CAPITAL VENTURES MANAGEMENT CONSULTANCIES CO. LLC, BladeRanger and Blink will have customary piggyback registration rights and up to two demand rights in any 12-month period.
Lease guarantees; TSA	DAIC assumes BladeRanger's obligation to backstop the Blink-guaranteed Envoy vehicle leases (letter of credit within 30 days after closing); Envoy extends the Blink transition services agreement six months to support the audit.

4. OTHER TERMS OF THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Term	Provision
BladeRanger-Funded Obligations	To the extent BladeRanger incurs, accrues, pays, funds or otherwise satisfies, during the period from the date of this Term Sheet through the Closing, any fees, costs, expenses or other amounts, whether or not related to the transactions contemplated hereby, including any amounts incurred or accrued by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding of Envoy during such period and any indebtedness of DAIC or Envoy paid, funded or otherwise satisfied by BladeRanger, BladeRanger shall receive additional shares of DAIC Common or Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, as applicable, equal to the aggregate amount so incurred, accrued, paid, funded or satisfied divided by the Reference Price of $6.00 per share; provided, however, that the aggregate amount so incurred, accrued, paid, funded by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding or indebtedness of Envoy shall not exceed $500,000 and an aggregate of 400,000 shares of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock shall not be issued in respect of amounts by BladeRanger in connection with the operation or funding or indebtedness of DAIC. Any such additional shares shall be in addition to, and shall not reduce, the Envoy-Side Shares otherwise issuable to BladeRanger.
DAIC Run-Off Expenses	DAIC shall be solely responsible for, and shall pay or otherwise satisfy, all costs, fees, expenses and other liabilities incurred or accrued by DAIC through the Closing in connection with the operation, maintenance and run-off of DAIC and its business, including legal, accounting, audit, SEC reporting, Nasdaq, transfer agent, D&O insurance and other public-company costs and expenses, and no such amounts shall be borne by BladeRanger or Envoy or reduce the consideration payable to BladeRanger in the transaction.

Board	At Closing, BladeRanger shall be entitled to designate one director to the DAIC Board. The DAIC Board will consist of seven directors, of which four shall be independent directors. FOR VALUE RECEIVED, as of September 10, 2026 (the "Issue Date"), CID HOLDCO, INC., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter called the "Borrower" or "Company"), hereby promises to pay to the order of H CAPITAL VENTURES MANAGEMENT CONSULTANCIES CO. LLC., a UAE entity – Licence No. 1162929, or its registered assigns (the "Holder"), the amount set forth above as the Original Principal Amount (as reduced pursuant to the terms hereof pursuant to redemption, conversion or otherwise, the "Principal Amount"), payable upon the earlier of maturity or upon prepayment of this Note as set forth herein. All payments shall be made at such address as the Holder shall hereafter give to the Borrower by written notice made in accordance with the provisions of this Note. Whenever any amount expressed to be due by the terms of this Note is due on any day which is not a business day, the same shall instead be due on the next succeeding day which is a business day and, in the case of any interest payment date which is not the date on which this Note is paid in full, the extension of the due date thereof shall not be taken into account for purposes of determining the amount of interest due on such date. As used in this Note, the term "business day" shall mean any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a day on which commercial banks in New York, New York are authorized or required by law or executive order to remain closed. The consideration delivered to the Borrower at the closing for the issuance of this Note is the delivery of $500,000 of cash, as contemplated by the Purchase Agreement.

This Note is free from all taxes, liens, claims and encumbrances with respect to the issue thereof and shall not be subject to preemptive rights or other similar rights of shareholders of the Borrower and will not impose personal liability upon the Holder thereof.

The Company hereby affirms all of its obligations to the Holder under this Note and the Purchase Agreement (collectively, the “Transaction Documents”) and agrees and affirms as follows: (i) that as of the Issue Date, the Company has performed, satisfied and complied in all material respects with all the covenants, agreements and conditions under each of the Transaction Documents to be performed, satisfied or complied with by the Company; (ii) that the Company shall continue to perform each and every covenant, agreement and condition set forth in each of the Transaction Documents and this Note, and continue to be bound by each and all of the terms and provisions thereof and hereof; (iii) that as of the Issue Date, no default or Event of Default has occurred or is continuing under the Purchase Agreement, the Note or any other Transaction Documents, and no event has occurred that, with the passage of time, the giving of notice, or both, would constitute a default or an Event of Default under this Note or any other Transaction Document; and (iv) that as of the Issue Date, no event, fact, or other set of circumstances has occurred which could reasonably be expected to have, cause, or result in a Material Adverse Effect. “Material Adverse Effect” means any effect on the business, operations, properties, or financial condition of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries that is material and adverse to the Company and/or such Subsidiaries and/or any condition, circumstance, or situation that prohibits or otherwise materially interferes with the ability of the Company and/or its subsidiaries to enter into and/or perform its obligations under any Transaction Document; provided, however, that no event, fact, or other set of circumstances disclosed in any filing made by the Company under the 1934 Act or the discharge of the obligations of the Company to LHT I, LLC or Phillips Equities & Trust Securities, LLC or any other transactions as contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and related agreements specified therein (the “Related Transaction Agreements”).

This Note shall be an unsecured obligation of the Borrower.

The following additional terms shall also apply to this Note:

ARTICLE I CONVERSION RIGHTS

1.1 Conversion Right. The Holder shall have the right at any time, and from time to time, on or after the Issue Date until the complete satisfaction by the Borrower of all amounts owed under this Note to convert all or any part of the outstanding and unpaid Principal Amount, interest, fees, or any other obligation owed pursuant to this Note into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock, as such Common Stock exists on the Issue Date, or any shares of capital stock or other securities of the Borrower into which such Common Stock shall hereafter be changed or reclassified, at the Conversion Price (as defined below) selected by the Holder for any particular conversion, determined as provided herein (a “Conversion”); provided, however, that (x) in no event shall the Holder be entitled to convert any portion of this Note in excess of that portion of this Note upon conversion of which the sum of (1) the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Holder and its affiliates (other than shares of Common Stock which may be deemed beneficially owned through the ownership of the unconverted portion of this Note or the unexercised or unconverted portion of any other security of the Borrower subject to a limitation on conversion or exercise analogous to the limitations contained herein) and (2) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the Conversion of the portion of this Note with respect to which the determination of this proviso is being made, would result in beneficial ownership by the Holder and its affiliates of more than 4.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (the “Ownership Limitation”), provided that, the Holder may increase the Ownership Limitation up to 9.99% at its sole discretion upon sixty-one (61) days prior written notice to the Company, and (y) in no event shall this Note be convertible into more than 9.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the Issue Date (the “Exchange Cap”), unless and until the Company obtains the approval of its stockholders as may be required by the applicable rules and regulations of the principal securities market on which the Common Stock is then quoted, listed or traded (such approval, the “Stockholder Approval”). For purposes of the proviso to the first sentence of this Section 1.1, beneficial ownership shall be determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “1934 Act”), and Regulations 13D-G thereunder, except as otherwise provided in clause (1) of such proviso. The number of shares of Common Stock to be issued upon each Conversion of this Note shall be determined by dividing the Conversion Amount (as defined below) (the numerator) by the applicable Conversion Price then in effect on the date specified in the notice of conversion (the denominator), in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Notice of Conversion”), delivered to the Company by the Holder in accordance with Section 1.4 below; provided that the Notice of Conversion is submitted by facsimile or e-mail (or by other means resulting in, or reasonably expected to result in, notice) to the Borrower before 8:00 p.m., New York, New York time on such conversion date (the “Conversion Date”). The term “Conversion Amount” means, with respect to any Conversion of this Note, the sum of (1) the Principal Amount of this Note to be converted in such Conversion plus (2) at the Holder’s option, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on such Principal Amount at the interest rates provided in this Note to the Conversion Date.

1.2 Conversion Price. Subject to the adjustments described herein, this Note shall be convertible into shares of Common Stock at any time, and from time to time, in any portion at the Conversion Price. The “Conversion Price” shall mean the lower of (a) $1.50 per share of Common Stock and (b) 90% of the ten (10) Trading Day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock (the “VWAP”) ending on the Trading Day immediately prior to the applicable Conversion Date; provided, however, that in no event shall the Conversion Price be less than $0.50 per share of Common Stock (the “Floor Price”). The Conversion Price shall be automatically adjusted equitably for stock splits, stock dividends or rights offerings by the Borrower relating to the Borrower’s securities or the securities of any subsidiary of the Borrower, as well as combinations, recapitalization, reclassifications, extraordinary distributions and similar events:

(a) Trading Day; VWAP. “Trading Day” shall mean any day on which the Common Stock is tradable for any period on The NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC or on the principal securities exchange or other securities market on which the Common Stock is then being quoted or traded (the “Principal Securities Exchange”). “VWAP” means, for any Trading Day, the volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock for such Trading Day on the Principal Securities Exchange or trading market where the Common Stock is quoted, listed or traded, as reported by Bloomberg L.P. (or an equivalent reporting service).

(b) Additional Conversion Considerations. In no event shall the Conversion Price of the Borrower's Common Stock be reduced below the Floor Price. If the shares of the Borrower's Common Stock closed below the Floor Price or otherwise have not been delivered within two (2) business days to the Holder after its transmittal of the Notice of Conversion, the Notice of Conversion may be rescinded by the Holder in its sole discretion. If the VWAP cannot be calculated for such security on such date in the manner provided above, the VWAP shall be the fair market value as mutually determined by the Borrower and the Holder.

(c) Pro Rata Conversion; Disputes. In the event of a dispute as to the number of shares of Common Stock issuable to the Holder in connection with a conversion of this Note, the Borrower shall issue to the Holder the number of shares of Common Stock not in dispute and resolve such dispute in accordance with this Note.

1.3 Authorized Shares. The Borrower covenants that during the period the Conversion right exists, the Borrower will reserve from its authorized and unissued Common Stock a sufficient number of shares, free from preemptive rights, to provide for the issuance of Common Stock upon the full conversion of this Note issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. The Borrower is required at all times to have authorized and reserved two times (2x) the number of shares that is actually issuable upon full conversion of the Note (based on the Conversion Price of the Note in effect from time to time) (the "Reserved Amount"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall be permitted to reduce the Reserved Amount in connection with a transaction where the use of proceeds is to repay the Notes in full and if no further Notes may be issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. The Borrower represents that upon issuance, such shares of Common Stock will be duly and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. In addition, if the Borrower shall issue any securities or make any change to its capital structure which would change the number of shares of Common Stock into which this Note shall be convertible at the then current Conversion Price, the Borrower shall at the same time make proper provision so that thereafter there shall be a sufficient number of shares of Common Stock authorized and reserved, free from preemptive rights, for conversion of the outstanding Note. The Borrower (i) represents that it has irrevocably instructed its transfer agent to issue certificates for the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note, and (ii) agrees that its issuance of this Note shall constitute full authority to its officers and agents who are charged with the duty of executing stock certificates to execute and issue the necessary certificates for shares of Common Stock in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Note.

Borrower's failure to maintain or to replenish the Reserved Amount within three (3) business days of a request of the Holder, shall be an Event of Default under this Note.

1.4 Method of Conversion.

(a) Mechanics of Conversion. Subject to Section 1.1, this Note may be converted by the Holder in whole or in part at any time from time to time on or after the Issue Date, by (i) submitting to the Borrower a Notice of Conversion (by facsimile, e-mail or other reasonable means of communication dispatched on the Conversion Date prior to 8:00 p.m., New York, New York time) and (ii) subject to Section 1.4(b), surrendering this Note at the principal office of the Borrower.

(b) Surrender of Note Upon Conversion. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, upon conversion of this Note in accordance with the terms hereof, the Holder shall not be required to physically surrender this Note to the Borrower unless the entire unpaid Principal Amount of this Note is so converted. The Holder and the Borrower shall maintain records showing the Principal Amount so converted and the dates of such conversions or shall use such other method, reasonably satisfactory to the Holder and the Borrower, so as not to require physical surrender of this Note upon each such conversion. In the event of any dispute or discrepancy, such records of the Holder shall, prima facie, be controlling and determinative in the absence of manifest error. The Holder and any assignee, by acceptance of this Note, acknowledge and agree that, by reason of the provisions of this paragraph, following conversion of a portion of this Note, the unpaid and unconverted Principal Amount of this Note represented by this Note may be less than the amount stated on the face hereof.

(c) Delivery of Common Stock Upon Conversion. Upon receipt by the Borrower from the Holder of a facsimile transmission or e-mail (or other reasonable means of communication) of a Notice of Conversion meeting the requirements for conversion as provided in this Section 1.4, the Borrower shall issue and deliver or cause to be issued and delivered to or upon the order of the Holder certificates (or electronic shares via DWAC transfer, at the option of Holder) for the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion within one (1) business day after such receipt (the “Deadline”) (and, solely in the case of conversion of the entire unpaid Principal Amount hereof, surrender of this Note) in accordance with the terms hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Notice of Conversion is received by Borrower prior to (i) an effective registration statement being declared effective or (ii) an exemption from registration being available, the securities issued to Holder shall be “restricted” (as such term is defined under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “1933 Act”)).

(d) Obligation of Borrower to Deliver Common Stock. Upon receipt by the Borrower of a Notice of Conversion, the Holder shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, the outstanding Principal Amount and the amount of accrued and unpaid interest on this Note shall be reduced to reflect such conversion, and, unless the Borrower defaults on its obligations under this Article I, all rights with respect to the portion of this Note being so converted shall forthwith terminate except the right to receive the Common Stock or other securities, cash or other assets, as herein provided, on such conversion. If the Holder shall have given a Notice of Conversion as provided herein and not rescinded such Notice of Conversion in connection with Section 1.2(b) herein, the Borrower’s obligation to issue and deliver the certificates for Common Stock shall be absolute and unconditional, irrespective of the absence of any action by the Holder to enforce the same, any waiver or consent with respect to any provision thereof, the recovery of any judgment against any person or any action to enforce the same, any failure or delay in the enforcement of any other obligation of the Borrower to the holder of record, or any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, limitation or termination, or any breach or alleged breach by the Holder of any obligation to the Borrower, and irrespective of any other circumstance which might otherwise limit such obligation of the Borrower to the Holder in connection with such conversion. The Conversion Date specified in the Notice of Conversion shall be the Conversion Date so long as the Notice of Conversion is received by the Borrower before 8:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on such date.

(e) Delivery of Common Stock by Electronic Transfer. In lieu of delivering physical certificates representing the Common Stock issuable upon conversion, provided the Borrower is participating in the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) Fast Automated Securities Transfer (“FAST”) program and subject to Section 1.5 below, upon request of the Holder and its compliance with the provisions contained in Section 1.1 and in this Section 1.4, the Borrower shall cause its transfer agent to electronically transmit the Common Stock issuable upon conversion to the Holder by crediting the account of Holder’s Prime Broker with DTC (as designated by the Holder in a Notice of Conversion) through its Deposit Withdrawal At Custodian (“DWAC”) system.

(f) Failure to Deliver Common Stock Prior to Delivery Deadline. Without in any way limiting the Holder's right to pursue other remedies, including actual damages and/or equitable relief, the parties agree that if delivery of the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note is not delivered by the Deadline the Borrower shall pay to the Holder $500.00 per day in cash, for each day beyond the Deadline that the Borrower fails to deliver such Common Stock until the Borrower issues and delivers a certificate to the Holder or credit the Holder's balance account with DTC for the number of shares of Common Stock to which the Holder is entitled upon such Holder's conversion of any Conversion Amount (under Holder's and Borrower's expectation that any damages will tack back to the Issue Date). Such cash amount shall be paid to Holder by the fifth day of the month following the month in which it has accrued or, at the option of the Holder (by written notice to the Borrower by the first day of the month following the month in which it has accrued), shall be added to the Principal Amount of this Note, in which event interest shall accrue thereon in accordance with the terms of this Note and such additional Principal Amount shall be convertible into Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Note. The Borrower agrees that the right to convert is a valuable right to the Holder. The damages resulting from a failure, attempt to frustrate, interference with such conversion right are difficult if not impossible to qualify. Accordingly, the parties acknowledge that the liquidated damages provision contained in this Section 1.4(f) are justified. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to make any payment or provide any remedy under this Section 1.4(f) to the extent that the Transfer Agent's failure to timely transmit the shares of Common Stock is directly attributable to a delay or failure by the Transfer Agent or is otherwise outside the reasonable control of the Borrower, including any delay arising from a systems failure, force majeure event, or other circumstance affecting the Transfer Agent over which the Borrower has no authority or influence, so long as the Company has used commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Transfer Agent to timely deliver such shares of Common Stock.

(g) Rescindment of a Notice of Conversion. If (i) the Borrower fails to respond to Holder within one (1) business day from the Conversion Date confirming the details of Notice of Conversion, (ii) the Borrower fails to provide any of the shares of the Borrower's Common Stock requested in the Notice of Conversion within one (1) business day from the date of receipt of the Notice of Conversion, (iii) the Holder is unable to procure a legal opinion required to have the shares of the Borrower's Common Stock issued unrestricted and/or deposited to sell for any reason related to the Borrower's standing, (iv) the Holder is unable to deposit the shares of the Borrower's Common Stock requested in the Notice of Conversion for any reason related to the Borrower's standing, or (v) if there is a trading restriction on the Common Stock on the day of or any day after the Conversion Date, the Holder maintains the option and sole discretion to rescind the Notice of Conversion with a "Notice of Rescindment."

1.5 Concerning the Shares. Until such time as the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note have been registered under the 1933 Act or otherwise may be sold pursuant to Rule 144 without any restriction as to the number of securities as of a particular date that can then be immediately sold, each certificate for shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note that has not been so included in an effective registration statement or that has not been sold pursuant to an effective registration statement or an exemption that permits removal of the legend, shall bear a legend substantially in the following form, as appropriate:

"NEITHER THE ISSUANCE OR SALE OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THE SECURITIES MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, TRANSFERRED OR ASSIGNED (I) IN THE ABSENCE OF (A) AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR THE SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR (B) AN OPINION OF COUNSEL (WHICH COUNSEL SHALL BE SELECTED BY THE HOLDER), IN A GENERALLY ACCEPTABLE FORM, THAT REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED UNDER SAID ACT OR (II) UNLESS SOLD PURSUANT TO RULE 144 OR RULE 144A UNDER SAID ACT. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, THE SECURITIES MAY BE PLEDGED IN CONNECTION WITH A BONA FIDE MARGIN ACCOUNT OR OTHER LOAN OR FINANCING ARRANGEMENT SECURED BY THE SECURITIES."

The legend set forth above shall be removed and the Borrower shall issue to the Holder a new certificate therefore free of any transfer legend if (i) the Borrower or its transfer agent shall have received an opinion of counsel, in form, substance and scope customary for opinions of counsel in comparable transactions, to the effect that a public sale or transfer of such Common Stock may be made without registration under the 1933 Act, which opinion shall be reasonably accepted by the Company so that the sale or transfer is effected or (ii) in the case of the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of this Note, such security is registered for sale by the Holder under an effective registration statement filed under the 1933 Act or otherwise may be sold pursuant to Rule 144 without any restriction as to the number of securities as of a particular date that can then be immediately sold. In the event that the Company does not accept the opinion of counsel provided by the Holder with respect to the transfer of securities pursuant to an exemption from registration, such as Rule 144 or Regulation S, at the Deadline, and does not provide a suitable replacement opinion to the Holder within five (5) business days, it will be considered an Event of Default pursuant to Section 3.2 of the Note.

1.6 Effect of Certain Events.

(a) Adjustment Due to Merger, Consolidation, Etc. If, at any time when this Note is issued and outstanding and prior to conversion of all of the Notes, there shall be any merger, consolidation, exchange of shares, recapitalization, reorganization, or other similar event, as a result of which shares of Common Stock of the Borrower shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of another class or classes of stock or securities of the Borrower or another entity, or in case of any sale or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Borrower other than in connection with a plan of complete liquidation of the Borrower, then the Holder of this Note shall thereafter have the right to receive upon conversion of this Note, upon the basis and upon the terms and conditions specified herein and in lieu of the shares of Common Stock immediately theretofore issuable upon conversion, such stock, securities or assets which the Holder would have been entitled to receive in such transaction had this Note been converted in full immediately prior to such transaction (without regard to any limitations on conversion set forth herein), and in any such case appropriate provisions shall be made with respect to the rights and interests of the Holder of this Note to the end that the provisions hereof (including, without limitation, provisions for adjustment of the Conversion Price and of the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the Note) shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as may be practicable in relation to any securities or assets thereafter deliverable upon the conversion hereof. The Borrower shall not affect any transaction described in this Section 1.6(a) unless (a) it first gives, to the extent reasonably practicable, thirty (30) days prior written notice (but in any event at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice) of the record date of the special meeting of shareholders to approve, or if there is no such record date, the consummation of, such merger, consolidation, exchange of shares, recapitalization, reorganization or other similar event or sale of assets (during which time the Holder shall be entitled to convert this Note) and (b) the resulting successor or acquiring entity (if not the Borrower) assumes by written instrument the obligations of this Section 1.6(a). The above provisions shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, sales, transfers or share exchanges.

(b) Adjustment Due to Dilutive Issuance. If, at any time when this Note is issued and outstanding, the Borrower issues or sells, or in accordance with this Section 1.6(b) hereof is deemed to have issued or sold, any shares of Common Stock for no consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Conversion Price in effect on the date of such issuance (or deemed issuance) of such shares of Common Stock (a “Dilutive Issuance”), then immediately upon the Dilutive Issuance, the Conversion Price will be reduced to the amount of the consideration per share received by the Borrower in such Dilutive Issuance, subject to the Holder’s other rights under Section 1.2 to select its Conversion Price; provided, however, that a Dilutive Issuance shall not include any issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) of securities pursuant to or in connection with (i) the Borrower’s 2024 Equity Incentive Plan, as such plan may be amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, (ii) a secondary offering of shares of Common Stock or other equity securities of the Company, provided that the aggregate amount of such offering does not to exceed $10,000,000, (iii) a private placement of convertible preferred stock or other securities convertible or exercisable, as applicable, into Common Stock at a fixed conversion or exercise price, as applicable, provided that the aggregate amount of such offering does not to exceed $10,000,000, (iv) a bona fide purchase order that qualifies for factoring by a traditional commercial factor at a factoring rate of less than 3% per month and has a face value of no less than $5,000,000; or (v) the issuance of securities pursuant to the Transaction Documents or any Related Transaction Agreement.

The Borrower shall be deemed to have issued or sold shares of Common Stock if the Borrower in any manner issues or grants any warrants, rights or options that constitute a Dilutive Issuance, whether or not immediately exercisable, to subscribe for or to purchase Common Stock or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock ("Convertible Securities") (such warrants, rights and options to purchase Common Stock or Convertible Securities are hereinafter referred to as "Options") and the price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon the exercise of such Options is less than the Conversion Price then in effect, then the Conversion Price shall be equal to such price per share. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the "price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon the exercise of such Options" is determined by dividing (i) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Borrower as consideration for the issuance or granting of all such Options, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Borrower upon the exercise of all such Options, plus, in the case of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable upon the conversion or exchange thereof at the time such Convertible Securities first become convertible or exchangeable, by (ii) the maximum total number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of all such Options (assuming full conversion of Convertible Securities, if applicable). No further adjustment to the Conversion Price will be made upon the actual issuance of such Common Stock upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon exercise of such Options.

Additionally, the Borrower shall be deemed to have issued or sold shares of Common Stock that is a Dilutive Issuance if the Borrower in any manner issues or sells any Convertible Securities, whether or not immediately convertible (other than where the same are issuable upon the exercise of Options), and the price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon such conversion or exchange is less than the Conversion Price then in effect, then the Conversion Price shall be equal to such price per share. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the "price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon such conversion or exchange" is determined by dividing (i) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Borrower as consideration for the issuance or sale of all such Convertible Securities, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Borrower upon the conversion or exchange thereof at the time such Convertible Securities first become convertible or exchangeable, by (ii) the maximum total number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities. No further adjustment to the Conversion Price will be made upon the actual issuance of such Common Stock upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding any other terms of this Note, if, at any time when this Note is issued and outstanding, but excluding any transactions pursuant to a Related Transaction Agreement, the Borrower issues or sells any shares of Common Stock under an "equity line" common stock purchase agreement, or other agreement similar in function thereto, with the Borrower or other investor, for a purchase price per share less than the Conversion Price in effect on the date of such issuance of such shares of Common Stock, then such issuance shall constitute a Dilutive Issuance and the Conversion Price will be reduced to the amount of the purchase price per share received by the Borrower in such Dilutive Issuance, subject to the Floor Price.

(c) Purchase Rights. If, at any time when any Notes are issued and outstanding, the Borrower issues any Convertible Securities or rights to purchase stock, warrants, securities or other property (the “Purchase Rights”) pro rata to the record holders of any class of Common Stock, then the Holder of this Note will be entitled to acquire, upon the terms applicable to such Purchase Rights, the aggregate Purchase Rights which such Holder could have acquired if such Holder had held the number of shares of Common Stock acquirable upon complete conversion of this Note (without regard to any limitations on conversion contained herein) immediately before the date on which a record is taken for the grant, issuance or sale of such Purchase Rights or, if no such record is taken, the date as of which the record holders of Common Stock are to be determined for the grant, issue or sale of such Purchase Rights.

(d) Notice of Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Conversion Price as a result of the events described in this Section 1.6, or under Section 1.2 (regarding stock splits, combinations, etc.), the Borrower, at its expense, shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment and prepare and furnish to the Holder a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Borrower shall, upon the written request at any time of the Holder, furnish to such Holder a like certificate setting forth (i) such adjustment or readjustment, (ii) the Conversion Price at the time in effect and (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other securities or property which at the time would be received upon conversion of the Note.

1.7 Trading Market Limitations. Unless permitted by the applicable rules and regulations of the principal securities market on which the Common Stock is then quoted, listed or traded, in no event shall the Borrower issue upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note more than the maximum number of shares of Common Stock that the Borrower can issue pursuant to any rule of the principal United States securities market on which the Common Stock is then traded (the “Maximum Share Amount”), which shall in no event exceed the Exchange Cap prior to receipt of Stockholder Approval, subject to equitable adjustment from time to time for stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, capital reorganizations and similar events relating to the Common Stock occurring after the Issue Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower shall not be obligated to take any actions to eliminate any prohibitions under applicable law or the rules or regulations of any stock exchange, interdealer quotation system or other self-regulatory organization with jurisdiction over the Borrower or any of its securities on the Borrower’s ability to issue shares of Common Stock in excess of the Maximum Share Amount, other than as required under the Purchase Agreement and, so long as the Borrower is in compliance with the Purchase Agreement, the failure to obtain the Stockholder Approval will not be considered an Event of Default under Section 3.2 of the Note.

1.8 Status as Shareholder. Upon submission of a Notice of Conversion by a Holder, (i) the shares covered thereby (other than the shares, if any, which cannot be issued because their issuance would exceed such Holder’s allocated portion of the Reserved Amount or Maximum Share Amount) shall be deemed converted into shares of Common Stock and (ii) the Holder’s rights as a Holder of such converted portion of this Note shall cease and terminate, excepting only the right to receive certificates for such shares of Common Stock and to any remedies provided herein or otherwise available at law or in equity to such Holder because of a failure by the Borrower to comply with the terms of this Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Holder has not received certificates or transmission of such shares pursuant to Section 1.4(e) for all shares of Common Stock prior to the tenth (10th) business day after the expiration of the Deadline with respect to a conversion of any portion of this Note for any reason, then (unless the Holder otherwise elects to retain its status as a holder of Common Stock by so notifying the Borrower) the Holder shall regain the rights of a Holder of this Note with respect to such unconverted portions of this Note and the Borrower shall, as soon as practicable, return such unconverted Note to the Holder or, if this Note has not been surrendered, adjust its records to reflect that such portion of this Note has not been converted. In all cases, the Holder shall retain all of its rights and remedies (including, without limitation, (i) the right to receive liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1.4(f) to the extent required thereby for such Conversion default and any subsequent Conversion default and (ii) the right to have the Conversion Price with respect to subsequent conversions determined in accordance with Section 1.2) for the Borrower’s failure to convert this Note.

1.9 Prepayment. The Borrower may, at any time and without the prior written consent of the Holder, prepay any Note in full for an amount equal to the sum of: (a) the Original Principal Amount of such Note or the Default Amount (as applicable), at such time, less (b) all payments previously made, plus (c) accrued and unpaid interest on the unpaid Principal Amount of this Note at such time (including all guaranteed interest), plus (d) all other amounts, costs, expenses, and liquidated damages due under or in respect of such Note.

ARTICLE II CERTAIN COVENANTS

2.1 Section 3(a)(9) or 3(a)(10) Transaction. So long as this Note is outstanding, the Borrower shall not enter into any transaction or arrangement structured in accordance with, based upon, or related or pursuant to, in whole or in part, either Section 3(a)(9) of the 1933 Act (a “3(a)(9) Transaction”) or Section 3(a)(10) of the 1933 Act (a “3(a)(10) Transaction”), provided, however, that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to any 3(a)(9) Transaction or 3(a)(10) Transaction undertaken solely with respect to any Existing Instrument. For purposes of this Section 2.1, “Existing Instrument” means any instrument, security, or obligation of the Borrower that is outstanding as of the Issue Date and includes, without limitation, the Transaction Documents and the Related Transaction Agreements regardless of the dates when executed (a “Permitted Transaction”). In the event that the Borrower does enter into, or makes any issuance of Common Stock related to a 3(a)(9) Transaction or a 3(a)(10) Transaction that is not a Permitted Transaction while this Note is outstanding, a liquidated damages charge of 25% of the outstanding Principal Amount balance of this Note, but not more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), will be assessed and will become immediately due and payable to the Holder at its election in the form of cash payment or addition to the balance of this Note.

2.2 Preservation of Existence, etc. The Borrower shall maintain and preserve, and cause each of its subsidiaries to maintain and preserve, its existence, rights and privileges, and become or remain, and cause each of its subsidiaries to become or remain, duly qualified and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the character of the properties owned or leased by it or in which the transaction of its business makes such qualification necessary.

2.3 Non-circumvention. The Borrower hereby covenants and agrees that the Borrower will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, scheme of arrangement, dissolution, issue or sale of securities, or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms of this Note, and will at all times in good faith carry out all the provisions of this Note and take all action as may be required to protect the rights of the Holder.

2.4 Legal Opinions. If the Holder provides the Company with (i) an opinion of counsel in form, substance and scope customary for opinions in comparable transactions, to the effect that a public sale or transfer of the shares may be made without registration under the 1933 Act and such sale or transfer is effected and upon which the Transfer Agent may rely, or (ii) the Holder provides reasonable assurances that the Shares can be sold pursuant to Rule 144 and provides the Company with an opinion of counsel upon which the Transfer Agent may rely, the Company shall permit the transfer, and, in the case of the Shares, promptly instruct its transfer agent to issue one or more certificates, free from restrictive legend, in such name and in such denominations as specified by the Holder or, in the sole discretion of the Holder, the Company shall take all action necessary to ensure that such Shares are transferred electronically as DWAC shares. The Company acknowledges that a breach by it of its obligations hereunder will cause irreparable harm to the Holder, by vitiating the intent and purpose of the transactions contemplated hereby. Accordingly, the Company acknowledges that the remedy at law for a breach of its obligations under this Section may be inadequate and agrees, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Company of the provisions of this Section, that the Holder shall be entitled, in addition to all other available remedies (including without limitation consequential damages), to an injunction restraining any breach and requiring immediate transfer, without the necessity of showing economic loss and without any bond or other security being required.

ARTICLE III
EVENTS OF DEFAULT

The occurrence of any of the following shall each constitute an “Event of Default” with no right to notice or the right to cure except as specifically stated:

3.1 Failure to Pay Principal or Interest. The Borrower fails to pay the Principal Amount hereof or interest thereon when due on this Note, whether at the Maturity Date, or upon any granted optional prepayment date, upon acceleration or otherwise.

3.2 Conversion and the Shares. The Borrower fails to instruct the Transfer Agent to issue shares of Common Stock to the Holder (or announces or threatens in writing that it will not honor its obligation to do so) upon exercise by the Holder of the Conversion rights of the Holder in accordance with the terms of this Note, fails to transfer or cause its transfer agent to transfer (issue) (electronically or in certificated form) any certificate for shares of Common Stock issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note, the Borrower directs its transfer agent not to transfer or delays, impairs, and/or hinders its transfer agent in transferring (or issuing) (electronically or in certificated form) any certificate for shares of Common Stock to be issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note, or fails to direct its transfer agent not to remove or impairs, delays, and/or hinders its transfer agent from removing any restrictive legend (or to withdraw any stop transfer instructions in respect thereof) on any certificate for any shares of Common Stock issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note (or makes any written announcement, statement or threat that it does not intend to honor the obligations described in this paragraph) and any such failure shall continue uncured (or any written announcement, statement or threat not to honor its obligations shall not be rescinded in writing) for two (2) business days after the Holder shall have delivered a Notice of Conversion. It is an obligation of the Borrower to remain current in its obligations to its transfer agent. It shall be an “Event of Default” of this Note, if a conversion of this Note is delayed, hindered or frustrated due to a balance owed by the Borrower to its transfer agent. If at the option of the Holder, the Holder advances any funds to the Borrower’s transfer agent in order to process a conversion, such advanced funds shall be paid by the Borrower to the Holder within forty-eight (48) hours of a demand from the Holder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall not be an Event of Default if the Transfer Agent’s failure to timely transmit the shares of Common Stock is directly attributable to a delay or failure by the Transfer Agent or is otherwise outside the reasonable control of the Borrower, including any delay arising from a systems failure, force majeure event, or other circumstance affecting the Transfer Agent over which the Borrower has no authority or influence, so long as the Borrower has used commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Transfer Agent to timely deliver such shares of Common Stock.

3.3 Breach of Agreement. The Borrower breaches any covenant or other term or condition contained in this Note or in any of the Transaction Documents, including but not limited to the Purchase Agreement.

3.4 Breach of Representations and Warranties. Any representation or warranty of the Borrower made herein or in any agreement, statement or certificate given in writing pursuant hereto or in connection herewith (including, without limitation, the Purchase Agreement), shall be false or misleading in any material respect when made.

3.5 Receiver or Trustee. The Company or any subsidiary of the Company shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver or trustee for it or for a substantial part of its property or business, or such a receiver or trustee shall otherwise be appointed.

3.6 Judgments. Except with respect to any claims filed by LHT I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company or otherwise disclosed in the Company's filings made pursuant to the 1934 Act, as amended, in each case, prior to the Issue Date, if any money judgment, writ or similar process shall be entered or filed against the Borrower or any subsidiary of the Borrower or any of its property or other assets for more than $50,000.00, and shall remain unvacated, unbonded or unstayed for a period of twenty (20) days unless otherwise consented to by the Holder, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

3.7 Bankruptcy; Liquidation. (i) Bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or liquidation proceedings or other proceedings, voluntary or involuntary, for relief under any bankruptcy law or any law for the relief of debtors shall be instituted by or against the Company or any subsidiary of the Company or the Borrower admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they mature, or have filed against it an involuntary petition for bankruptcy; or (ii) any dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of Borrower or any substantial portion of its business occurs.

3.8 Delisting of Common Stock. The Borrower shall fail to maintain the listing of the Common Stock on the Principal Securities Exchange.

3.9 Failure to Comply with the 1934 Act. If the Borrower shall fail to file all filings with which it has become delinquent prior to the Issue Date within 15 days after the Issue Date and, thereafter, shall fail to comply timely with the reporting requirements of the 1934 Act; and/or the Borrower shall cease to be subject to the reporting requirements of the 1934 Act; and/or the Borrower shall not have publicly available all information required by paragraph (b) of Rule 15c2-11 of the 1934 Act (as effective on September 26, 2021), as amended, such that brokers or dealers attempting to publish any quotation for the Common Stock or, directly or indirectly, to submit any such quotation for publication, shall be able to comply with Rule 15c2-11(a).

3.10 DTC. In the event that the Company (i) loses its ability to deliver shares via "DWAC/FAST" electronic transfer, or (ii) loses its status as "DTC Eligible."

3.11 Cessation of Operations. Any cessation of operations by Borrower or Borrower admits it is otherwise generally unable to pay its debts as such debts become due, provided, however, that any disclosure of the Borrower's ability to continue as a "going concern" shall not be an admission that the Borrower cannot pay its debts as they become due.

3.12 Maintenance of Assets. The failure by Borrower to maintain any material intellectual property rights, personal, real property or other assets which are necessary to conduct its business (whether now or in the future) or any disposition or conveyance of any material asset of the Borrower; provided, however, that any transfers of assets or other transactions contemplated by the Related Transaction Agreements shall not be an Event of Default under this Section 3.12.

3.13 Financial Statement Restatement. The restatement of any financial statements filed by the Borrower with the SEC for any date or period from two years prior to the Issue Date of this Note and until this Note is no longer outstanding, if the result of such restatement would, by comparison to the unrestated financial statement, have constituted a material adverse effect on the rights of the Holder with respect to this Note or the Purchase Agreement.

3.14 Replacement of Transfer Agent. In the event that the Borrower proposes to replace its transfer agent, the Borrower fails to provide, prior to the effective date of such replacement, a fully executed Transfer Agent Instruction Letter in a form as initially delivered pursuant to the Purchase Agreement (including but not limited to the provision to irrevocably reserve shares of Common Stock in the Reserved Amount) signed by the successor transfer agent to Borrower and the Borrower.

3.15 Cessation of Trading. Any cessation of trading of the Common Stock on the Principal Securities Exchange, and such cessation of trading shall continue for a period of five consecutive (5) Trading Days.

3.16 Inside Information. Any attempt by the Borrower or its officers, directors, and/or affiliates to transmit, convey, disclose, or any actual transmittal, conveyance, or disclosure by the Borrower or its officers, directors, and/or affiliates of, material non-public information concerning the Borrower, to the Holder or its successors and assigns, where (i) the Holder has not consented in writing to the receipt of such information and agreed with the Borrower to keep such information confidential or (ii) which is not immediately cured by Borrower's filing of a Form 8-K pursuant to Regulation FD on that same date.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default specified above, exercisable through the delivery of written notice to the Borrower by such Holders (the "Default Notice") the Note shall become immediately due and payable and the Borrower shall pay to the Holder, in full satisfaction of its obligations hereunder, an amount equal to (x) the then outstanding Principal Amount of this Note plus (y) accrued and unpaid interest on the unpaid Principal Amount of this Note to the date of payment on the amounts referred to in clauses (x) and/or (y) plus (z) any amounts owed to the Holder pursuant to Section 1.4(f) hereof (the then outstanding Principal Amount of this Note to the date of payment plus the amounts referred to in clauses (x), (y) and (z) shall collectively be known as the "Default Amount"). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon delivery by the Holder to the Borrower of a Default Notice (as defined herein) setting forth the Event of Default under the Note and if not cured within ten (10) business days if curable, at the sole option of the Holder the Default Conversion Price (as defined below) can be used by the Holder as the Conversion Price, at any time, and from time to time, thereafter while the Note remains outstanding. The "Default Conversion Price" shall mean $0.01 per share.

The Holder shall have the right at any time after the date that is ten (10) days following the occurrence of an Event of Default that has not been cured, to require the Borrower to immediately issue, in lieu of the Default Amount, the number of shares of Common Stock of the Borrower equal to the Default Amount divided by the Conversion Price then in effect, subject to the terms of this Note. This requirement by the Borrower shall automatically apply upon the occurrence of such ten (10) day period without the need for any party to give any notice or take any other action.

If the Holder shall commence an action or proceeding to enforce any provisions of this Note, including, without limitation, engaging an attorney, then if the Holder prevails in such action, the Holder shall be entitled to reimbursement by the Borrower for its attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred in the investigation, preparation and prosecution of such action or proceeding.

ARTICLE IV
MISCELLANEOUS

4.1 Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver. No failure or delay on the part of the Holder in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude other or further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privileges. All rights and remedies existing hereunder are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

4.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals, and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be delivered as contemplated by the notice provisions under Section 9(g) of the Purchase Agreement.

4.3 Amendments. This Note and any provision hereof may only be amended by an instrument in writing signed by the Borrower and the Holder.

4.4 Assignability. This Note shall be binding upon the Borrower and its successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Holder and its successors and assigns. The Borrower shall not assign this Note or any rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Holder. Notwithstanding anything in this Note to the contrary, this Note may be pledged as collateral in connection with a bonafide margin account or other lending arrangement. The Holder and any assignee, by acceptance of this Note, acknowledge and agree that following conversion of a portion of this Note, the unpaid and unconverted Principal Amount of this Note represented by this Note may be less than the amount stated on the face hereof.

4.5 Cost of Collection. If default is made in the payment of this Note, the Borrower shall pay the Holder hereof reasonable costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

4.6 Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. This Note shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the principles of conflicts of law. THE COMPANY AND THE HOLDER HEREBY WAIVE A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGAINST THE OTHER IN RESPECT OF ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE. Any dispute, controversy, difference or claim that may arise between the Company and the Holder in connection with this Note; and all claims arising out of or relating to the validity, construction, interpretation, enforceability, breach, performance, application or termination of this Note, shall be submitted to binding arbitration governed by the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The seat of the arbitration shall be in the State of Delaware in the City of Wilmington. There shall be only one arbitrator selected in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration shall be conducted in English and may be conducted in a virtual setting. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding and judgment may be entered thereon. Provided a party has made a sufficient showing under applicable law, the arbitrator shall have the freedom to invoke, and the parties agree to abide by, injunctive measures that either party submits in writing for arbitration claims requiring immediate relief. Additionally, nothing in this Section shall preclude either party from seeking equitable relief or interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding. Each side must bear its own costs and legal fees during the pendency of the arbitration. A party's failure to pay any costs or fees required to proceed in the arbitration, as they timely come due, shall result in an immediate default against that party. The prevailing party in the arbitration shall be entitled to recoup all its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs from the nonprevailing, including, without limitation, all of its costs relating to the arbitration. The arbitrator's final award shall include this assessment of costs and fees.

4.7 Certain Amounts. Whenever pursuant to this Note the Borrower is required to pay an amount in excess of the outstanding Principal Amount (or the portion thereof required to be paid at that time) plus accrued and unpaid interest, the Borrower and the Holder agree that the actual damages to the Holder from the receipt of cash payment on this Note may be difficult to determine and the amount to be so paid by the Borrower represents stipulated damages and not a penalty.

4.8 Purchase Agreement. By its acceptance of this Note, each party agrees to be bound by the applicable terms of the Purchase Agreement.

4.9 Notice of Corporate Events. Except as otherwise provided in this Note, the Holder of this Note shall have no rights as a Holder of Common Stock unless and only to the extent that it converts this Note into Common Stock. The Borrower shall provide the Holder with prior notification of any meeting of the Borrower's shareholders. In the event of any taking by the Borrower of a record of its shareholders for the purpose of determining shareholders who are entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution, any right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire (including by way of merger, consolidation, reclassification or recapitalization) any share of any class or any other securities or property, or to receive any other right, or for the purpose of determining shareholders who are entitled to vote in connection with any proposed sale, lease or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Borrower or any proposed liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Borrower, the Borrower shall mail a notice to the Holder, at least twenty (20) days prior to the record date specified therein (or thirty (30) days prior to the consummation of the transaction or event, whichever is earlier), of the date on which any such record is to be taken for the purpose of such dividend, distribution, right or other event, and a brief statement regarding the amount and character of such dividend, distribution, right or other event to the extent known at such time. The Borrower shall make a public announcement of any event requiring notification to the Holder hereunder substantially simultaneously with the notification to the Holder in accordance with the terms of this Section 4.9 including, but not limited to, name changes, recapitalizations, etc. as soon as possible under law.

4.10 Usury. If it shall be found that any interest or other amount deemed interest due hereunder violates the applicable law governing usury, the applicable provision shall automatically be revised to equal the maximum rate of interest or other amount deemed interest permitted under applicable law. The Borrower covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it will not seek to claim or take advantage of any usury law that would prohibit or forgive the Borrower from paying all or a portion of the Principal Amount or interest on this Note.

4.11 Remedies. The Borrower acknowledges that a breach by it of its obligations hereunder will cause irreparable harm to the Holder, by vitiating the intent and purpose of the transaction contemplated hereby. Accordingly, the Borrower acknowledges that the remedy at law for a breach of its obligations under this Note will be inadequate and agrees, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Borrower of the provisions of this Note, that the Holder shall be entitled, in addition to all other available remedies at law or in equity, and in addition to the penalties assessable herein, to an injunction or injunctions restraining, preventing or curing any breach of this Note and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof, without the necessity of showing economic loss and without any bond or other security being required. No provision of this Note shall alter or impair the obligation of the Borrower, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the Principal Amount of, and interest on, this Note at the time, place, and rate, and in the form, herein prescribed.

4.12 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Note is invalid or unenforceable under any applicable statute or rule of law, then such provision shall be deemed inoperative to the extent that it may conflict therewith and shall be deemed modified to conform with such statute or rule of law. Any provision hereof which may prove invalid or unenforceable under any law shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof.

WHEREAS, in addition to the Loan Agreement, Phillips Equities & Trust, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Phillips”), and Debtors were parties to that certain Junior Secured Convertible Promissory Note dated June 23, 2026, in the principal amount of $500,000.00 (the “Phillips Note”), and Phillips has assigned all of its right, title, and interest in and to the Phillips Note to Lender prior to the execution of this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Debtors are in default of their obligations under the Loan Agreement as a result of their numerous failures to pay the required Minimum Monthly Installment Payments beginning in July 2026, coupled with the delisting determination of CID Holdco, Inc. made by The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) effective August 6, 2026 (which the Company timely appealed with Nasdaq). Lender hereby agrees that it shall not foreclose upon the Note or exercise any foreclosure remedies with respect to the Collateral (as defined in the Security Agreement (as defined herein)), and (b) under the Phillips Note, Debtors have agreed to convey all of their collective rights, title and interest in and to certain assets of Debtors to Lender, pursuant to the Bills of Sale (as herein defined).
